More NEW CONCERTS for 2008/2009

1) “Peace Building with Kid Hearts!”

A rollicking K-6 assembly concert that encourages participation in high energy sing-a-songs and storytelling about the power of peace. Shows youngsters how to be peace-builders via Social Studies curriculum-tied songs/activities.

Starting with peace of mind and peace inside ourselves and radiating outwards to the school community, surrounding neighbourhood and promoting global citizenship. Students learn about being peace-makers, living more lightly on the earth, creating caring communities, reducing bullying and boosting self esteem. Planting the seeds of peace for a school year and lifetime of fostering peaceful, productive relationships and learning.

2) “Challenging Climate Change!”

A highly interactive, inspiring concert that helps the whole school sing together about taking action on climate change and environmental literacy. Blending singalong songs about environmental stewardship, boosting self esteem, community building and the power of mentors. A campfire singalong style concert with audience participation percussion instruments, wildlife costumes and an empowering activity booklet/teacher's guide that will help students reduce their impact on climate change and help teachers satisfy curriculum!

We welcome the chance to tailor-make programmes for your current school themes. Many schools will also combine a AM assembly concert with PM visits to classrooms, allowing the chance for students to interact with the artist for curriculum-tied activities.
